INDICTMENT RETURNED AGAINST MAN WHO SHOT LMPD OFFICERS

Today the Jefferson County Grand Jury returned a thirty-five (35) count indictment against 26 year-old Larynzo D. Johnson charging him with two (2) counts of Assault in the First Degree and thirty-three (33) counts of Wanton Endangerment in the First Degree. These charges arose from the September 23, 2020 incident at Brook Street and Broadway in downtown Louisville where Johnson is alleged to have fired a handgun at police officers during a protest gathering. Two officers were struck by bullets and other nearby officers and civilians were endangered by the gun fire. Johnson is currently being held on a bond of $1,000,000.00.

The case has been assigned to Division Five of Jefferson Circuit Court and an arraignment has been scheduled for Monday, November 23, 2020 at 12:00 p.m. in Division 11 of Jefferson Circuit Court.

Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney Ryan Olberding is the prosecutor.
